The Adventures of Tintin (PG)

Director: Steven Spielberg. Voices: Jamie Bell, Andy Serkis, Daniel Craig, Simon Pegg. 107 mins.

The animated adventure kicks off after Tintin and his trusty pup sidekick Snowy discover a map giving directions to a ship that sank under the helm of one of Captain Haddock's ancestors. Setting off on an exciting treasure hunt, Tintin soon encounters a series of perilous obstacles.

Sunday 8 January : 3pm

Arthur Christmas (U)

Director: Sarah Smith. Starring (voices): James McAvoy, Jim Broadbent, Imelda Staunton. 97 mins

Santa's son must save Christmas for one little girl after her present goes missing en route from the North Pole. A charming animated family adventure from Aardman Animation that is sure to become a Christmas classic.

Sunday 8 January : 7.30pm

The Help (12A)

Director: Tate Taylor. Starring: Emma Stone, Viola Davis, Octavia Spencer, Allison Janney. 146 mins.

In this inspirational drama based on the 2009 New York Times bestseller by Kathryn Stockett, Emma Stone is Eugenia 'Skeeter' Phelan, a plucky young writer who interviews her best friend's African-American housekeeper about her experiences working for a well-heeled white family and thereby shakes up the Deep South establishment.

Contains racism theme and one scene of crude behaviour.

Wednesday 11 January : 7.30pm

We Need To Talk About Kevin (15)

Director: Lynne Ramsay. Starring: Tilda Swinton, Ezra Miller, John C. Reilly, Siobhan Fallon. 112 mins.

A powerful domestic drama with a killer twist. Tilda Swinton is the mother of a teenage boy who commits an unimaginably heinous crime in Lynne Ramsay's adaptation of the bestselling novel. Contains strong language, once very strong, strong sex and sexualised nudity.

Thursday 26 January : 7.30pm

Ides of March (15)

Director: George Clooney. Starring: Ryan Gosling, Paul Giamatti, George Clooney. 96 mins.

As the most media-savvy staffer on the governor's (George Clooney) campaign trail towards winning the Democrats' primary election, Stephen Myers is the top pupil. But the charismatic young upstart is about to get a hard lesson in dirty politics in this gripping, tightly scripted, downright electrifying political drama. Contains strong language.

Sunday 29 January : 7.30pm

Romantics Anonymous (15)

Director: Jean-Pierre Améris. Starring: Benoît Poelvoorde, Isabelle Carré, 78 mins. Fr. with English subtitles.

With his beloved chocolate business turning sour, socially awkward boss Jean-René decides to enlist an extra pair hands. Enter Angélique, a chronically shy young woman who shares Jean-René's passion for all things sugar and sweet. She is the answer to his prayers, but in ways he hadn't realised. Contains one scene of moderate sex.
